Special Issue on Financial Investment

Call for Papers

Financial investment is the purchase or creation of an asset with the expectation of favorable future returns. It includes putting money into well-known assets such as bonds, cash, real estate, and equity shares; or other tangible assets such as art, wine, antiques, coins, or stamps, some financial assets such as commodities, private equity, distressed securities, hedge funds, carbon credits, venture capital, film production and financial derivatives.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Financial Investment. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Venture capital
- Capital accumulation
- Capital gains tax
- Inflation risk
- Traditional investments
- Foreign direct investment
- Rate of return
- Investment trusts

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the "Special Issue" under your manuscript title. The research field "Special Issue - Financial Investment" should be selected during your submission.
